January 16, 2020

Dear Parents,
Eisenhower High School is pleased to announce the return of the annual picnic celebration for the senior graduating class of 2020. A senior's memory of their last day of Eisenhower should be filled with fond memories. We hope that a picnic will give them a safe and fun way to remember their time at Eisenhower. This year has been incredible success with the Senior Picnic and we know this year will be even better.

The picnic celebration is being planned for Friday, May 21, 2020, the senior's last day of school. This is a great opportunity for the senior class to have a safe and fun day of games and activities that will include a dunk tank, a giant slide, glow-in-the-dark, several extreme sports, and a variety of food and drink options. We hope that the senior class will be able to have what it is, a memory of course, a picnic would not be a picnic without food!

As you can imagine, this is a huge undertaking for the staff and administration of Eisenhower High School. Thus, to make our vision a reality, we are asking for any help that you can provide. We are looking for volunteers to help with the set up, the day of the picnic, and the clean up. Please especially need men to work security!

We really need donations. Both monetary and goods items. Food, paper products, etc. Without donations, we would not be able to have the picnic that we have planned. For those that would like to contribute monetarily, you can use PaySchools.

You will need to sign in your PaySchools account and click on the drop-down menu next to Senior Picnic. Then, click on the "I'm a sponsor" tab. The "I'm a sponsor" tab will open up a new page.

Please let us know as soon as possible, but no later than May 16, 2020.

Please contact Jennifer Ramirez at Eisenhower High School if you have any questions.

Thank You in Advance.

Jennifer Ramirez
Senior Picnic Leader

Attention all CSI and MST families

Mr. Manzella and Mr. Paulon approve all CSI and MST students to attend all Eisenhower Senior activities. This will NOT impact their attendance.

STUDENT LEADERS AT IKE!!

All About Me!

Name: Larissa Kaju

Age: 15 Class: Yearbook

Position: Yearbook Editor

Introducing me!
I have been in this class for a semester and a half. My favorite part of the class is going around and interviewing people and doing easy tasks for the class. I don't really plan on doing anything career related to yearbook. My advice for younger kids or anyone else wanting to take the class is to do your work on time/turn it on time and not put it off. This class has taught me how to get stuff done before/by the deadline.

My Favorite Stores
• Aeropostle
• PacSun
• Hollister
• Aritzia

Hobbies + Other Favs
• Shopping
• Hanging out with friends
• Fav class is AP US History

Katherine Keenan

Katherine is a business manager in yearbook, and she will be a group leader in the spring! This is her 3rd year in this class. Her favorite part of the class is being able to take photos of sports and after school activities, along with making business advertisements. She is planning on double majoring in acting and business in college. A piece of advice she could give to people coming after her is "Don't be afraid to do what you love, even if you think people will judge you, just do you!" Lastly, being apart of yearbook, she has grown as a leader because it helped her not be afraid to talk to people she doesn't know and wanting to take the lead on things!

Pauline Paulis

The place Pauline holds in yearbook is getting all the pictures, interviews, captions, etc. and adding them into the yearbook. It is her first year in yearbook. Pauline's favorite part of yearbook is getting to meet new people and being able to go to them whenever she needs help. She took yearbook because it was something she never took and she wanted to try something different. One piece of advice she'd give to oncoming yearbook staff is to come in with a positive mood and be organized because it will help be successful in the class. As a leader, she thinks she's grown to not be scared to talk to people. Pauline thinks being able to socialize and be with others because it helped her not be shy anymore.

MYA AFRAM

YEARBOOK EDITOR

MYA AFRAM JOINED YEARBOOK SOPHMORE YEAR AFTER SIGNING UP FOR IT WITH HER FRIEND. WHEN SHE JOINED, SHE WAS VERY SHY AND IT TOOK HER A LONG TIME TO GAIN THE COURAGE TO GO GET AN INTERVIEW. BEING IN YEARBOOK OPENED HER UP AND MADE TALKING TO PEOPLE MUCH EASIER. BEING IN YEARBOOK HAS GIVEN HER A DIFFERENT PERSPECTIVE OF THE BOOK BECAUSE SO MUCH GOES INTO MAKING IT.

Ella Bemis

Hi I am Ella Bemis and I am a first year staffer in yearbook. My favorite part of the class is getting to know new people and taking photos at sporting events. I do not plan in doing a career related to yearbook, but I love all the opportunities I get when doing it. A piece of advice for the upcoming new staffers would be to time manage and take the class if you are going to be dedicated because it is definitely a lot of work but also very fun! I have grown as a leader by learning to talk to people I didn't know and going out of my comfort zone.

Ella Bemis

Rovina Perkaj

Staff Writer

This is Rovina, she is a staff writer who started this year. Her favorite part of the role is the writing portion, as writing is a major hobby that she truly enjoys. She plans to pursue a career with characteristics similar to journalism, with a strong interest in sports. She advises you to have good communication skills, for you to do interviews often and make sure to have good time management.

BIO:

Gavin has been in yearbook for two years, starting her sophomore year. Her favorite part of the class is working with her friends to create something meaningful with a great final outcome. Although she doesn't plan to pursue a career related to yearbook, the experience has helped her grow as a leader by improving her time management and reducing procrastination. Her advice to future students is to have fun, push through the stressful moments, and enjoy the rewarding feeling of seeing the finished book.

Yearbook Student: Gavin McCreary

Jaclynn Sienko

Jaclynn is a staff member of yearbook this year and she likes it because she is able to work on projects with her friends. This is her first year of yearbook and even though it does not have anything to do with her future career she has got a lot better at talking to people through doing interviews. A piece of advice she would give to kids taking yearbook next year is to not wait last minute to do things.

MEET OLIVIA

OLIVIA PRECOURT

This is Olivia, and she is a first year staff member on Yearbook. Her favorite thing about the class is that she gets to be apart of something the whole school gets to see. A piece of advice she would give to incoming yearbook students would be to always be creative when sharing ideas. Lastly, a way she has grown from taking this class is that she is now able to talk to people easier and more confidently. Also, it helped her express her ideas in different ways.

Kendel Evans

Editor in Chief

I have been taking yearbook for 3 years. My favorite part of class is my classmates. We do a lot of group work and I have met the best people that I would not have known without yearbook. My advice for future yearbook kids is to embrace being uncomfortable and trying new things it's where growth happens. Being EIC I have learned how to lead, manage my time, and communicate. I have overcome many things when adjusting to a new role. It taught me how to persevere and problem solve. The challenge of being EIC and having a hands on role has taught me skills that will be useful in my future.

Kendel Evans

Stefan has taken 3 consecutive years in yearbook. He loves working with his friends to get the yearbook done; and he says he loves to see when the final product is published because it shows all the hard work, they put into it. Some advice he gives is to be patient, take pride in the work you do, and when working on projects do it as a team effort.

He has grown as a leader by prioritizing task, working efficiency, and collaborating with classmates.

Avery is a staff writer and just started this year. Her favorite part is getting different topics and learning new things, while also writing about them. Avery says that the class has introduced her to new opportunities. She says to not worry about perfection because it will happen along the way. All you need is a good start and the right people to help you. Avery has learned how to write and putting her own spin on it!

Avery Garner

This is Violet Gojcevic. Her position in yearbook is a first year staffer. It is her first year in yearbook. Her favorite part of the class is going out to interview people. She doesn't plan on doing anything related to yearbook in the future. One piece of advice is to incoming yearbook kids is that to stay organized and that the class is not an easy A but it's not hard. Violet learned to be more social and take on challenges from this class.
