

Future Falcon

What Awaits Future Falcons?

“Future Falcons should look forward to joining a school where family comes first. At Henry Ford II, we believe in empowering excellence in everyone, providing opportunities to grow academically, discover your passions, and achieve greatness, whether it’s excelling in the classroom, performing on stage, or competing on the field. Together, we soar!”

Points of Pride

- ▶▶▶ Michigan and National Blue Ribbon Exemplary School
- ▶▶▶ Honored nationally in such areas as national merit, Career and Technical Education (CTE), Advanced Placement (AP), film, music and the Milken Family Foundation for the nation’s top teacher
- ▶▶▶ One of the most academically challenging schools in the United States by the Washington Post
- ▶▶▶ Newsweek Magazine honored school as among the top ten percent in the nation for providing student experiences in science, technology, engineering, and Mathematics (STEM)
- ▶▶▶ Among the highest level of achievement at local, state and national level

What Makes a Falcon?

- Resilient – Falcons overcome challenges with strength and determination.
- Compassionate – Falcons care deeply about each other and their community.
- Innovative – Falcons think creatively and explore new possibilities.
- Determined – Falcons are focused on their goals and work hard to achieve them.
- Respectful – Falcons treat others with kindness, fairness, and dignity.
- Curious – Falcons embrace learning and seek knowledge in every opportunity.
- Empowered – Falcons take initiative and inspire those around them to excel.

Success in the School

- Associate principal Anthony Tocco was selected among 12 statewide to be a part of Michigan Leadership for Equity and Transformation as a fellow.
- Past graduate Jaden Rosenberger earned a silver medal in 2024 Scholastic Art and Writing competition.
- Two seniors have been awarded with scholarships of $100,000 or more to attend the College of Creative studies located in Detroit, Michigan.

Lori Singleton
Principal

What would you tell Future Falcons?

“The dedication of our teachers and the achievements of our classmates, both academically and in extracurricular activities make me proud to be part of such a vibrant school.”

- Josh Houston, HFII Senior