

Future Eagle

What Advice would you give Future Eagles?

“Seize every opportunity to get involved in your high school experience. Make the most of this time, as these are the memories that will stay with you for a lifetime.”

Brandon Manzella
Principal

What would you tell future Eagles?

“Eisenhower is a fun and safe environment. There’s always fun activities being held and the school always does its best to ensure that everyone is in the best and safest learning environment possible.”

Points of Pride

- »»» Michigan and National Blue Ribbon Exemplary School
- »»» Recognized by the Washington Post as one of the most academically challenging schools in the United States
- »»» Offers students a choice of 26 Advanced Placement (AP) courses
- »»» Seven Macomb Athletic Conference (MAC) RED Championships
- »»» Earned the 2023-2024 National Gold Council of Excellence award from the National Association of Student Councils in recognition of its efforts to involve students in their school and community

What Makes an Eagle?

- Resilient- Like the eagle, a symbol of strength and endurance, Eisenhower Eagles rise above adversity and remain committed to their goals.
- Collaborative- Just like an eagle soars with strength, an Eisenhower Eagle understands the power of teamwork. They collaborate effectively with peers, teachers, and community members, valuing the collective effort in achieving success.
- Prideful- A proud Eisenhower Eagle takes pride in their school and everything it stands for. This pride motivates them to contribute to the school’s legacy, uphold its traditions, and represent it well in all their endeavors.

Success in the School

- Teacher Julia Holt selected as the 2025 Teacher of the Year by the Michigan School Vocal Music Association (MSVMA)
- Seniors, Wyatt Saunders and Nicholas Tornoplisky, designed and constructed a custom rack to store Ike's volleyball equipment
- CTE teacher Ryan DeCardenas named as a 2025 UCS Champion

- Arianna Papak, Eisenhower senior